Native Jazz Quartet NJQ: Stories

All melodies are hundreds if not thousands of years old.

Tracks 1, 5 and 7: Traditional Alaska Native childrens' songs.

Tracks 2 and 11: Traditional New Orleans folk melodies.

Track 3, 6, and 8: Melodies of European heritage.

Tracks 7 and 9: Folk songs from Filipino culture.

For more detail on melodies refer to inside sleeve.

Ch'ál Uxaa Sháatk'i: (Chalth uu-gxhaa Shaatki)
Little song birds flying over head. Down feathers land on you and bring you good luck.

Shaax' Sáani: (Shaak Saanee)
Little girls are supposed to sit and weave Chilkat robes, but I would rather sit on a branch like a blue jay!

Haat yee aadéi: (Haat yee aaday)
Come here little girls, let's pick on the cooked fish that fell onto the hot rocks.
